

SAYS

THINKS

DOES

FEELS

I want the interior design to reflect the brand identity of Urban Aura.

I want to ensure that the interior design complements the menu and overall dining experience.

I need to find a balance between aesthetics and functionality in the interior design

I need to consider the target audience and their preferences when designing the interior

I want the interior design to create a unique and memorable dining experience for customers

I should research and gather inspiration for innovative and trendy interior design ideas

I need to prepare and maintain the interiors of Urban Aura interiors

I want the interior to be visually appealing and worthy

Users may feel excited about the opportunity to create a visually stunning interior for Urban Aura

Users may feel a sense of responsibility for the maintenance and cleanliness of the interior

Users may feel the pressure to design an interior that meets the brand's image and impresses customers

Users may feel a sense of creativity and artistic expression when designing the interior

Work with interior designers, architects, and contractors to execute the design plan

Develop a detailed interior design plan, considering factors like space utilization, color schemes, furniture, and decor

Establish regular maintenance routines to ensure the interior remains clean, well-maintained, and in line with the desired aesthetic

Conduct research on interior design trends, concepts, and materials